Join Us At Oodles on Market Square September 21st!

Come join us for our monthly board meeting at Adaptable Furniture Concepts above the Mast General Store at 5:30pm on Monday, September 21st. We will adjourn the meeting at 6:30pm to Oodles on Market Square for our social hour.

Downtown Home Tour

Come see what downtown living is all about on Sunday, October 11 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.! This is your chance to tour more than 15 furnished residences throughout Downtown Knoxville. Units are housed in everything from carefully restored historical buildings to loft warehouse space to beautiful new construction. Many of downtown's current residents were introduced to urban living through one of the City People biannual Downtown Homes Tours, helping Knoxville's center city grow to almost 2,000 residents over the last few years! Advance discounted tickets are available by visiting the "ONLINE STORE" page of www.citypeople.org. Tickets are $10 in advance, or $15 day-of at the East Tennessee Community Design Center at 500 Gay Street (right across Union Ave. from the Arby's.) Experience a taste of downtown living! Downtown residents are proud of our community, and City People is grateful to the owners and residents of these beautiful downtown spaces for opening their homes to us for this special occasion.

Proceeds from ticket sales are used by City People to provide small grants to organizations that benefit Knoxville's center city. For more information about City People -- a non-profit group representing those who live, work, play downtown -- please email

Lantern & Carriage Tour with Pioneers of the Park

Kinzel, Springs, Townsend, Elkmont, Girl Scout Camps, and Smoky Mountain Hiking Clubs. Many of Old Gray Cemetery's perpetual residents were guiding forces behind these and other efforts to protect and preserve the Smoky Mountains with the creation of a national park. Join us as we celebrate these Twentieth Century pioneers and the 75th Anniversary of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park that fulfilled their dream. From the unwitting victim of a stray bullet at the turn of the century to a selection from the cemetery's many Civil War veterans, an eclectic and interesting collection of other Old Gray personalities will also be portrayed. World War II reenactors and horse drawn carriage rides.

Sunday, September 27, 2009 from 4:00 - 7:00 PM (Rain or Shine) at Old Gray Cemetery.

543 North Broadway.

$ 10.00 adults, $ 5.00 students.
